On November 7, 1978 I talked with woman claiming to be Rhonda Fortson (she did not have passport with her).

She was informed that her mother-in-law [redacted] was concerned about her and her husband and child. Mrs. Fortson replied that her husband was now in the United States. She added that she had received a letter from her mother-in-law since last July. Mrs. Fortson promised to write her mother-in-law soon.

Mrs. Fortson refused to sign Privacy Act release.
